Read this first — how to use the dates

Most of the dates below are confirmed 2026 dates. Since it's already late August 2026, most of them have passed. That is deliberate and still useful, because:

Nearly every one of these festivals runs on a fixed calendar slot — "second weekend of July", "Pentecost weekend", "third weekend of August". The 2026 date is therefore the single most reliable predictor of the 2027 date.

Legend used throughout:

Mark	Meaning
 2027 confirmed	Organiser has published the 2027 date
	Fixed annual slot — 2027 will land on the same weekend $\pm$ a few days
	Date varies year to year — you must check the site
	Ticketed (rest are free or cheap walk-in)
	Personal pick — worth planning a trip around

Rule of thumb: 2027 programmes for the summer season get published between January and April 2027. Set a reminder for February.

4.2 The "book a flight / long weekend" tier

Ranked by how much it'll blow your mind vs Koprivnica:

1. Medeltidsveckan, Visby, Gotland (SE) — early Aug — the ceiling of what a medieval festival can be
2. Landshuter Hochzeit (DE) —  25 Jun - 18 Jul 2027 — only every 4 years, don't miss the window
3. Festiwal Słowian i Wikingów, Wolin (PL) — 1st weekend Aug — biggest Viking reenactment on earth
4. Kaltenberger Ritterturnier (DE) — mid-Jul — the best jousting anywhere
5. JORVIK Viking Festival, York (UK) — Feb — best winter option
6. Viagem Medieval, Santa Maria da Feira (PT) — late Jul/early Aug — biggest by performer count
7. Slavnosti pětিলisté růže, Český Krumlov (CZ) — 3rd weekend Jun — closest world-class event, ~6h drive
8. Oblężenie Malborka (PL) — late Jul — night siege of the biggest brick castle on earth
9. Puy du Fou (FR) — Apr-Nov — production values nothing else touches

4.4 Practical notes

- Book accommodation early for Visby, Landshut, Český Krumlov, Sinj and Rab — these towns fill completely.
- Most German/Austrian markets are cash-friendly but card-patchy. Bring cash.
- Gewandung (costume): many German markets offer cheaper entry in period dress; some (MPS, Castlefest) it's basically expected.
- Free vs ticketed: Croatian, Czech, Romanian and most Italian events are free or ~€5–10. German/Austrian ticketed shows (Kaltenberg, Rosenberg, Laxenburg) run €20–45.
- Dog/kid friendliness varies a lot — check individual sites.
- The best single planning tool is mittelalterkalender.info — over 1,000 events a year across Germany and the rest of Europe, filterable.
